

SUNMAN COMMUNITY MARKET WELCOME!

Hey there! If you're excited to be part of the Sunman Community Market, don't forget to complete the application form and sign off on the rules—it's like our little guidebook for a fun and responsible market experience. You can easily grab the forms online  or swing by the Sunman Town Hall from Monday through Thursday, between 8 AM to 12 PM, (closed 12-1 for lunch) and 1 PM to 5 PM.

The Community Market is run by volunteers and sponsored by Sunman Main Street.

RULES

Only the following goods may be sold at the market. The rule of thumb is they must be homemade or locally made. The following items are permitted: potted, fresh-cut and dried flowers, potpourri, fresh and dried herbs as well as products using natural herb extracts, bedding and foliage plants, trees, bushes, honey, flour, ground grains, and local produce, which is defined as that produce grown in the state of Indiana. Locally produced wine and spirits are allowed and must be sold in compliance with the rules outlined by the Alcohol and Beverage Commission. Handmade items such as artwork, jewelry, crafts, soap, candles, and pottery are also permitted. No items may be sold in violation of copyright laws.

For processed foods, if you have any questions about licensed facilities or other requirements, please call your County Health Department. The Ripley County Health Department is the ruling body on food processing and selling requirements at the Sunman Community Market. The Ripley County Health Department phone number is 812-689-5751.

The sale of CBD and/or Hemp products MUST adhere to federal and state guidelines. It is the responsibility of the business owner to ensure that they are selling CBD and/or Hemp products legally. The business owner MUST provide proof of an accurate license to sell CBD and/or Hemp products to be considered for the Sunman Community Market. For specific questions, please contact the Ripley County Health Department at 812-689-5751.

As you set up your booth, please bring your tables, change, bags, produce scale, and weather/sun protection gear. If you're using a pop-up tent, make sure to secure it with 20-pound weights. Keep in mind that there is no shade at the market location, so come prepared with your protection from the sun.

Lastly, please clean up after yourselves by removing all personal items, equipment, vehicles, and trash from the Market area. Let's work together to make the Market a welcoming and tidy place for all. We appreciate your cooperation and can't wait to see you at the Market!
