

Clerk-Treasurer Roles & Responsibilities

In Indiana, all Clerk-Treasurers are elected for a four-year term of office. The Clerk-Treasurer is not an employee of the Town but an elected public official.

The Clerk-Treasurer is the keeper of the municipality's official public records and is the Chief Financial Officer in the Town of Sunman. Specific duties are defined by the Indiana Code and Municipal Code of Ordinances. No other elected municipal duties are as specifically defined by law as the duties of the Clerk-Treasurer. Attached: IC 36-5-6Chapter 6. Town Clerk-Treasurer

The Clerk-Treasurer has broad powers to hire and supervise employees and oversee the operation of the municipal budgets, including utilities. The ranking status of the Clerk-Treasurer is on equal level with the Town Council. The only area in which the Clerk-Treasurer does not have complete authority is setting wages and final approval of budgets. The office of the Clerk-Treasurer has evolved dramatically from a bookkeeper and secretary to a financial manager whose responsibilities impact the financial well-being of local government.

Administrative Duties

- Other duties as necessary to establish an effective and efficient operation of public office;
- Establishes, with Town Council approval, the internal controls procedures for all Town employees, administrators, and boards as defined by state statute.

Financial Duties

- Responsible for all accounts payables and receivables for the Town;
- Examines and validates each claim document and verifies the appropriate budget appropriation;
- Issues the order to pay each bill and disburses checks;
- Processes payroll and any applicable benefits;
- Preparation of annual budget all documents in compliance with Indiana Statute;
- Certifies the levy to the Department of Local Government and Finance upon approval from the Town Council;
- Administers the Town's general ledger system for all funds including utilities;
- Appropriates tax revenues collected by the Town to the various funds as required by law;
- Responsible for the billing and collection of fees for Town utilities and oversight of the billing office and staff;
- Responsible for the administration of any investments, bonds, or other financial commitments for the Town;
- Responsible for all local, state, and federal tax filings as applicable.

Notices

- Publishes and/or posts ordinances and resolutions as required by Indiana statutes;
- Publishes bids, RFP's, job openings and other business notices as required or requested;
- Provides all appropriate notices as required by Indiana statute and Town regulations;
- Provides the media with press releases as necessary.

Associations

- Liaison to Town Council, Boards, and Commissions;
- Develops agendas for Town Council meeting, executive sessions, and other meetings scheduled;
- Researches and provides supporting data relative of Town affairs/concerns.
- Liaison with Regional, State, and Federal Government Agencies;
- Coordinate and administer projects;
- Represents the Town at meetings with federal, state and local officials;

IC 36-5-6-8Employment of attorneys or legal research assistants

Sec. 8. (a) A clerk-treasurer may hire or contract with competent attorneys or legal research assistants on terms the clerk-treasurer considers appropriate.

(b) Appropriations for the salaries of attorneys and legal research assistants employed under this section shall be approved in the annual budget.

(c) Appropriations for the salaries of attorneys and legal research assistants employed under this section shall be approved in the annual budget and must be allocated to the clerk-treasurer for the payment of attorneys' and legal research assistants' salaries.

As added by P.L.69-1995, SEC.13. Amended by P.L.98-2000, SEC.24.

IC 36-5-6-9Vacancy in office

Sec. 9. (a) This section applies if an office of town clerk-treasurer is vacant and the town legislative body is unable to fill the office under IC 3-13-9-3.

(b) The town legislative body may select a town legislative body member, who shall assume the duties of the office of town clerk-treasurer. For purposes of Article 2, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana and Indiana law, if a town legislative body member serves as the ex officio town clerk-treasurer, the duties assumed by the town legislative body member:

- (1) are considered part of the duties prescribed by law for the office of town legislative body member; and
- (2) are not considered a second office.

A town legislative body member may not receive any additional compensation for assuming the duties of the town clerk treasurer.

(c) The town legislative body may enter into an interlocal agreement under IC 36-1-7 with the town clerk-treasurer and town legislative body of another town in the state to assist the town legislative body member selected under subsection (b) in performing the duties of the clerk-treasurer's office. The agreement may not last longer than the remainder of the vacant clerk-treasurer's term and must meet the requirements of IC 36-1-7.

(d) If an agreement cannot be reached under subsection (c), the town legislative body may enter into a contract with a certified public accountant to assist the town legislative body member selected under subsection (b) in performing the duties of the clerk-treasurer's office. The contract may not last longer than the remainder of the vacant clerk-treasurer's term.

As added by P.L.120-2015, SEC.3.

IC 36-5-6-10 Training requirements

Sec. 10. (a) As used in this section, "training courses" refers to training courses, workshops, training institutes authorized by IC 5-11-14, formal academies, special seminars, and other in-service training related to an office described in section 2 of this chapter that are developed or offered under the rubric of a generally accepted professional association, association of governments or a state agency or department, or public university or affiliated center.

(b) An individual elected to the office described in section 2 of this chapter on or after November 5, 2019, shall complete at least:

- (1) fourteen (14) hours of training courses within one (1) year; and
- (2) thirty-six (36) hours of training courses within three (3) years; after the individual is elected to the office described in section 2 of this chapter.

(c) A training course that an individual completes:

- (1) after being elected to the office described in section 2 of this chapter; and
- (2) before the individual begins serving in the office described in section 2 of this chapter; shall be counted toward the requirements under subsection (b).

(d) An individual shall fulfill the training requirements established by subsection (b) for each term to which the individual is elected to the office described in section 2 of this chapter.

(e) This subsection applies only to an individual appointed to fill a vacancy in the office described in section 2 of this chapter. An individual described in this subsection may, but is not required to, take training courses required by subsection (b). If an individual described in this subsection takes a training course required by subsection (b) for an individual elected to the office described in section 2 of this chapter, the town shall pay for the training course as if the individual had been elected to the office described in section 2 of this chapter.

(f) The:

- (1) town executive;
- (2) town legislative body; and
- (3) individual who holds the office described in section 2 of this chapter; shall use all reasonable means to ensure that the individual who holds the office described in section 2 of this chapter complies with the training requirements established by this section.

(g) The individual who holds the office described in section 2 of this chapter shall maintain written documentation of the training courses that the individual completes toward the requirements of this section.

(h) If a town reorganizes under IC 36-1.5, the individual who performs the functions of the office described in section 2 of this chapter for the town shall comply with the training requirements established by this section for the reorganized political subdivision.
